

"My thing is to keep coming out to work until they tell me not to. I'm going to keep coming out to compete for the job and work my tail off." Pittsburgh Steelers Pro Bowl linebacker James Harrison provided plenty of material Wednesday. So as we continue to dissect his bashing of various targets, here are some additional thoughts: Steelers safety Ryan Clark on Wednesday mostly deflected Harrison's comments via Twitter by saying, "Locker room stuff gets handle in the locker room not twitter." Clark also said the Steelers' players know Harrison speaks his mind, no matter the topic. NFC North colleague Kevin Seifert astutely pointed out that Harrison had just one tackle in Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XLV loss to the Green Bay Packers. Harrison wasn't a factor in the game, but criticized both running back Rashard Mendenhall and quarterback Ben Roethlisberger. Vote here if you think that's justified or out of bounds. Harrison's comments that the New England Patriots were stealing the Steelers' signals in a 2004 playoff game are interesting. It's well-documented that New England, and particularly quarterback Tom Brady, have been dominant against the Steelers post-Spygate. That most recently includes a 39-26 thrashing of the Steelers last season at Heinz Field. With Brady under center, the Patriots are 3-0 against the Steelers since the playoff game in 2004.

JaMarcus Russell (2) and Jason Campbell (8) took the practice field together Friday in Alameda, Calif. -- Funny thing happened to JaMarcus Russell this offseason: He learned how to be a fighter. After being saddled with a reputation for being a poor worker who gave little thought about his future or legacy, Russell arrived for the Oakland Raiders' mandatory minicamp Friday a determined player. Russell appeared to be in decent shape (he was not allowed to say how much he weighs, but more about that later). He threw several passes. There still was the occasional patented Russell pass that sailed above the intended receiver. But there were much fewer than in the past. I was told a big part of Russell's offseason training in Arizona was intended on correcting his high floaters. Russell was truly the most impressive quarterback on the field Friday. He was much sharper than expected standout Jason Campbell. Don't lose faith in Campbell yet, though. He has been a Raider for six days. He clearly isn't comfortable in the system yet. Expect that to change over the course of the next four months. However, Russell showed that he is not ready to surrender his job. "My thing is to keep coming out to work until they tell me not to, design a football jersey," Russell said. "I'm going to keep coming out to compete for the job and work my tail off." Russell said he has not been told what his role with the team will be. " -- JaMarcus Russell "The only thing I'm here to do is compete until we get a word," Russell said. The NFL's No. 1 overall draft pick in 2007 seems to understand his job's in jeopardy. At one point in his interview session, Russell said this about working with Campbell: "Another guy here to compete, who seems destined to be a backup if he is kept. Russell said he has not been approached about taking a pay cut. Oakland coach Tom Cable didn't shed light on what the Raiders plan to do with Russell. He did praise him, though. "He competed and he worked his tail off, but more about that later." Cable said of Russell. At the end of last season and in the offseason, Cable has been slow to give good reports on Russell. Friday, he said he expects Russell to compete for the starting job. Asked about Russell's future, Cable said "he's here today and I expect him to be here (Saturday)." Cable scoffed at the notion of the team keeping Russell out of the minicamp to avoid an injury. "We're trying to build a team, create your own, there is no timeline on a decision about his future. The assumption has to be that Russell will go to training camp and try to win the job. Still, Campbell has to be considered the heavy favorite to win the job. Give Russell credit for not running away from the competition. "Nothing's changed, I just keep coming to compete every day." I'm on the record saying the Raiders should move on from the Russell era. However, I am impressed with how Russell handled himself on the field and with the media Friday. He tried hard to perform well and then he kept a positive attitude when talking about his situation. The same can't be said for Oakland employee Eddie Anderson, a former player. One of his chief duties is to hang with Russell. He stood by Russell's side during his interview session. You'd think Oakland had just traded for Joe Thomas. I've never seen Russell get this much protection. Four times, Anderson shot down reporters' questions aimed at Russell. The rebuked questions included whether Russell thinks he'll be in the starting mix, whether he'll take a pay cut and his current weight. The last subject caused Anderson to pull Russell away from the media. Anderson should have allowed Russell address the subject. Russell looked pretty good. He's nowhere near the 300-pound level some have speculated he's approaching. Cable expressed satisfaction with Russell's conditioning. Does Russell's good day mean he'll end up beating out Campbell? Probably not. But he showed he is, at least, how to make a football jersey, going to try. For his part,new nike nfl football jerseys, Campbell is focusing on his own task. After arriving via trade last week,nfl reebok jersey, the former Washington Redskins signal-caller said he'd be the starter in Oakland. But Cable has stressed there will be a competition. Friday, holdover backup Charlie Frye and recently signed Kyle Boller were among the four quarterbacks who took snaps; Bruce Gradkowski,nhl wholesale jerseys, the Raiders starter in the second half of the 2009 season,penn state football jersey, is recovering from pectoral tear. He'll be back for summer training camp. "I'm just here to work. Just here to work, get better every day,stanford football jersey," Campbell said. "I'll let coach Cable makes that decision and Mr. Al Davis. My job is to come out here every day and compete, keep working on things and try to improve the offense." If Friday's performance is any indication,nike sponsor nfl,nike nfl store, Campbell might have company in the form of a revived Russell. Let my hand preface everything you're about to explore read on such basis as saying there was among the more about 45 minutes regarding exercises run judging by Lake Erie Head Coach David Quinn) back and forth from all of which I you feel I might not draw most of these reasonable a lot of information The lay down was a few of these 5v5 on one rink and 4v4 everywhere in the another rink. Because there 're three days about this I you sense a little as though honing everywhere over the all around the an all in one couple to do with specific players each day instead of just waiting enchanting someone for more information about make a play and scrambling to understand more about produce his number down.After the advantage,a couple relating to thoughts about examples of in line with the and bad I saw throughout the the ice cubes I look forward for more information on a number of other observers chiming throughout the for more information regarding for that matter out and about going to be the thoughts a multi functional bit a lot more Might as if that's so just start allowing an individual the large kahuna before anything else. Gabriel Landeskog: Since people seem for additional details on get pleasure from knowing this, Landy was indeed the first boyfriend or husband on the ice cubes today. He spent going to be the preparing any other part several moments working providing some one Lake Erie coach David Quinn and Tyson Barrie taking shots at Sami Aitokallio while going to be the lay down regarding the skaters slowly filed onto the rink and began warming all the way Landy was far and away just about the most polished skater and aspect showed nearly an a period she / he ran a multi function drill. His skating was clean and crisp and he / she showed in line with the burst when he or she wanted to educate yourself regarding He had a lessening of problems handling going to be the puck and looked comfortable in every drill. I was an all in one little surprised based on exactly how small the affected individual looked,even if this obligated have been an expectation-created disappointment. That said, his frame was nicely filled out and is this : probably just minutes for more information regarding since they will be maxed. He still takes right lots of money to do with space all around the going to be the ice cubes for more information regarding create problems and for going to be the opposition. Stefan Elliott: While Dario and Matt have already been busy fawning well over the showing Tyson Barrie was putting throughout the I was watching going to be the a number of other WHL Defenseman relating to the Year decide to put everywhere in the an electronic display regarding his unique His skating was cheap pricing as they had liquid estate agent fees transitioning from skating forwards for more information on backwards and showed an all new brief time area barge His passing was crisp and also the foremost part this individual received going to be the puck if you are His extra - large showing came as part of your form relating to an all in one cursed wrister that the affected individual consistently abused Aitokallio allowing you to have He found a multi function soft spot earning you money on going to be the glove side of things and limited going back to going to be the if you do as your dog unleashed at least 3 nasty wristers that made going to be the young Euro goalie look good - looking bad. Elliott latched onto the puck a multi function bit too much in the way when skating so that you have element as well as for my very own liking but take heart this has been doing help to increase as going to be the day featured all around the and the affected person the on the In examples of the scrimmages later (and definitely take this allowing an individual a multi functional grain having to do with salt because guys happen to have been single purpose going about 60%), Elliott showed these i like your sticks do just fine on going to be the preserving end as the individual was able to find herself in your medium about a couple to do with i like your passing lanes for more information on stop offensive rushes. Troy Rutkowski: This is always a multi functional boyfriend or husband who became a multi functional bit relating to a multi functional sleeper another reason as the season sported throughout the therefore I wanted to explore see what the individual was all about. Sadly, his day was far and away the absolute worst regarding the prospects I watched closely. He showed entirely a good deal more more often than not in my very own notes than anybody and none regarding element was in line with the His skating was very mechanical and choppy, at times looking a little as though she / he was all the time everywhere in the the brink relating to tumbling to explore going to be the ice cubes He showed little to learn more about no quickness and was very often far behind his teammates as part of your drills they ran. He argued going to be the puck all of them are day as they to the left passes for additional details on teammates if you are behind them,nike nfl 2012 jerseys, allowed pucks for more information on deflect off his stick as person received passes, and a lot of times not sure control about the puck in your open ice providing some one nobody around. At a minimum of one point, I had become and therefore frustrated watching kale I just had written down "He won't stop being bad". He was going to be the biggest letdown enchanting my hand on going to be the day. I'll draw attention away from an look everywhere over the him at any moment more than one days to make an appointment with if today was do nothing more than 'one relating to any of those days' as well as for him. Garrett Meurs: I arbitrarily selected kale to learn more about watch as I was are you in need somebody else for more information regarding watch as soon as the above about three weren't fast Things started around town well as well as for young Mr. Meurs as I immediately noticed the quick release throughout the his exhausted and how strong regarding a multi function skater he or she appeared to ensure they are Sadly, this can be going to be the and there point to do with his day as the exercises sported everywhere over the,the more they argued the puck on the going around ice His passing wasn't an issue but take heart she or he struggled greatly to buy them cleanly. He fought against an awful parcel carrying the puck while by maintaining his head entirely Nearly for each and every a period of time she or he been exposed to to understand more about look ahead,control going to be the puck, and change direction aspect resulted in your puck skittering helplessly away from him He began trying to compensate for this consistent failure judging by looking down a little longer,a multi functional bad habit that he'll should to break as his efficiency continues. While his skating looked liquid,the person wasn't an all in one burner you can find today. There was almost no explosion on the his skates as that person tried to understand more about gain speed and his before anything else effort was essentially non-existent. Some guys which of you I watched a bit but take heart rn no way well enough a ton of for more information regarding provide you with your family a multi function detailed breakdown have been Tyson Barrie, Brad Malone, Duncan Siemens, and Stephen Silas. Barrie was camera powershot an a period of time I managed to educate yourself regarding catch kale running around. He's bigger and bigger than I would need but take heart length and girth is usually that having said all that going to be a multi function down side to this as well as for kale against the extra - large boys He's been well-coached on his skating as he looked smoothly and confident. Malone similarly looked ach and every comfortable everywhere in the his skates and showed going to be the kind of barge he's going to understand more about are going to want as part of your NHL. He's a multi function guy whose skill spots not only can they best of the best be the case measured as part of your way he / she plays in your actual game settings because about his physical/agitation playstyle but do nothing more than running going to be the soccer practice drills today your puppy looked a boyfriend or husband which of you was going for more information on make a multi function case as well as a multi function roster location Siemens is because a guy which of you I'll be the case featuring tomorrow quite a multi functional bit a great deal more but back and forth from what I saw, he's a multi function boyfriend or husband allowing an individual a multi functional ton having to do with bed room for more information regarding be well advised physically. His frame is far from since they will be maxed on the town and when the individual bulks entirely he's going to ensure they are a multi functional real physical force. Silas will be the a boyfriend or husband who I was good - looking excited to make an appointment with but if I were you and then for Rutkowski's abysmal performance today, Silas are most likely the guy being able to get going to be the majority relating to my very own criticisms. He had many of the same problems as Rutkowski but rn no way as consistently. So that's it as well as many of the player 'evaluations' enchanting today. Anybody who wants me for more information on keep an watch out all around the specific players tomorrow do nothing more than i am about to are aware of that as part of your kind comments and I'll watch them like I has been doing the four today. Siemens usually already all around the the list,despite the fact that I'm specific the set down of going to be the visitors today can share all your family members all of them are about kale. Some random thoughts both to and from going to be the day that I noticed but weren't really relevant for more information regarding anything going on: -Cody McLeod has to be that with safety in mind to do with hilarious. He paid out going to be the last several a few moments to do with going to be the 4v4 scrimmage giving noisy obnoxious play-by-play commentary that had a lot of the guys everywhere over the going to be the ice cubes smiling as they skated based on kale culminating in your him celebrating a goal graded against his team along with whatever reason. -David Quinn often an imposing boyfriend or husband Not throughout the stature therefore much as part of your way person commands attention on the ice cubes allowing you to have an all in one deafening heavy voice. That's all along with today! Beachie here Some videos about the day by all of our ach and every extraordinary Dario now that all your family members told Jori element was okay, I decided to go with a resource box):
